Dallas Contemporary Announces Partnership with DART for Student Poster Design Contest

Grand Prize winner's art work will be featured on DART buses and DART.org

Dallas, TEXAS [22 March 2011] Dallas Contemporary is proud to announce their new partnership with Dallas Area Rapid Transit (DART) by sponsoring DART's annual Student Poster Design Contest. Since 1997, DART has offered the opportunity for students to create artwork for bus posters. The contest is open to students in grades K-12. Students are asked to use their creativity in illustrating this year's theme, IT'S ALL CONNECTED.

The grand-prize winner will have his or her artwork featured on DART buses as well as being featured on www.DART.org. Dallas Contemporary will award the overall Grand Prize winner a cash prize of $100 and give the 1st place winner in the 9th -12th grade division a cash prize also of $100. Dallas Contemporary will produce a limited edition t-shirt with the Grand Prize winner's design.

For more information and details about entering this year's contest, please contact Jessica D. Lennon at 214.749.2582 or jlennon@dart.org.
